WELCOME TO 2024 LEADERSHIP CONVENTION

Session will begin soon

Develop programs, resources, and leadership skills that enhance the lives of all children, youth, and their families.

Advocate by speaking on behalf of all children and youth in schools, in the community, before governmental bodies, and before other organizations that make decisions affecting children.

Engage the public in united and equitable efforts to secure the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social well-being of all children and youth.

MAKE ROOM FOR COMMUNITY

Michelle Love-Day

SESSION OBJECTIVE

Participants will discuss the barriers and benefits to working with others in the community and how to develop strategies that will leave them feeling empowered, engaged, and ready to embrace the diverse needs of their community.

"Students will need more than just good teachers and smaller class sizes to meet the challenges of tomorrow. For students to get the most out of school, we need to promote a partnership between parents, community leaders, and teachers... Only through partnerships can our schools keep improving and stay on the right track."

Susan Castillo, Oregon Superintendent of Public Instruction, Daily Astorian, June 12, 2003

TITLE III

Schools that receive Title III funding, for example, are required to:

Implement an effective means of outreach to parents of limited English proficient children to inform such parents of how they can:

- 1. be involved in the education of their children; and
- 2. be active participants in assisting their children:
 - 1. to learn English;
 - 2. to achieve at high levels in core academic subjects; and
 - 3. to meet the same challenging State academic content and student academic achievement standards as all children are expected to meet (Title III, 3302(e) cited in Gomez & Greenough, 2002, p. 4).

HOW DOES YOUR CIRCLE FARE?

This can often be called the "like me bias" when your 10 are similar to you.

The more we are able to see how the "like me" bias influences our decision making, the more we are able to take this from unconscious to conscious bias- and work on ourselves from there.

Level 1 getting to knowfamiliar with (Biggest Number)

Unconscious Bias

Level 2 After time and building relationships they move into the comfy zone

Level 3 Our Trusted 10

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION UTAH PTA Let your PTA organization speak for itself. Make connection and create an experience.

WHAT CONNECTIONS CAN YOU MAKE TODAY?

"Everyone can be great, because everyone can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr
