Music Composition

MUSIC COMPOSITION is the process of creating a new piece of music. The composer (student submitting entry) is a person who expresses his/her own thoughts and ideas through the use of sound. The student composer may submit an entry performed by an individual or group and/or make use of a sound library generated performance of a composed score. Student composers are not required to perform their compositions. Middle and high school grade divisions require either a music score/notation (either traditional or tablature) or a written reflective statement that provides a musically technical explanation of how the music was created (100 words or less).

Reflect on the 2020-2021 Theme: I Will Change the World By...

See Music Composition Frequently Asked Questions for more information.

Consider the following musical styles and instruments to portray your original composition: A Cappella, Blues, Choral, Country, Electronic, Hip Hop, Jazz, Latin, Musical, Orchestral, Pop, R&B, Religious, Rock, Symphonic/Concert Band, and Traditional.

All instruments, sounds, styles, and combinations are accepted. Software may be used to produce an audio recording that does not include commercially pre-programmed imported MIDI or other source files. Entries containing algorithmic composition techniques are not accepted. An explanation of the origin of the music and/or the significance of the music style might be a useful addition to the artist statement when submitting a music composition that involves traditional, cultural, or regional instruments. Whether an entry displays formal composition technique or a simple approach, it will be judged primarily on how well the student uses his or her artistic vision to portray the theme, originality, and creativity.

Copyright: Use of copyrighted material is prohibited. Plagiarized entries will be disqualified.

Suggestions for Audio Quality:

- Do not place the recording device on top of an instrument(s) or speakers.
- Turn off all noise-making devices in the room (air conditioners, fans, telephones, etc.).
- Record a short test and listen to it. If needed, change the record volume or microphone location.
- Make sure the music is audible on the recording.
- Allow for two seconds of silence at the beginning and end of your recording.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I include notation and a reflective statement?
No. Include notation or a reflective statement.

Can I turn in a video?
No. Turn in an audio recording of your song. Make sure to complete and upload notation if you are competing in the Middle or High School divisions.

Can I sing one of my favorite songs?
No. You must write a new song for Reflections.

Can my mom, dad, friend, or somebody else write an accompaniment for me?
No.

What is traditional notation?
Traditional notation is the familiar 5-line staff with clefs, time and key signatures, and note symbols.

What is tablature?
Tablature uses numbers and symbols that indicate the finger positions rather than pitches. It is commonly used for fretted stringed instruments such as guitars and ukuleles.

Do I have to include notation?
If you are competing in the Middle or High School divisions, you must include notation.

Can someone help me notate?
Someone can teach you how to notate, but you must do the work to notate your song by yourself.

Can my notation be chord names with my lyrics underneath?
No. You must include notation for the melody line of your song.

Can I use notation software?
You may use notation software as long as it creates traditional notation.

What types of things should be included in a reflective statement?
What creative and musical decisions did you make to achieve the final version of the piece?
How were the musical elements developed?
What equipment was used (if any)?
What sounds and/or musical ideas were used to represent certain ideas or emotions?
How were your creative and musical decisions influenced by your expertise, context, and expressive intent?
