

Position Statement on Non-Partisan Local School Boards

Utah PTA recognizes that direct, nonpartisan elections are the best way to elect both local and state school board members. We oppose partisan elections of these bodies, and support parents in being actively involved in any or all election processes.