KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:
SAM DURST & RYAN GRASSLEY
EXTREME MOTUS

Sam and Ryan have been friends since high school. Currently, they are the sales and marketing team behind Extreme Motus. Together they go on adventures in the Emma X3 off-road wheelchair. From National Parks to skate parks Sam and Ryan are showing the world that "Nature is wheelchair accessible"

Their TikTok channel has grown to nearly 200,000 followers who come to laugh and be inspired by this odd couple.

They will be speaking about their friendship, and on ways that we can help include others in activities that we enjoy.

Students will also have the opportunity to ride in a wheelchair like Sam’s, and the chance to help pull and push their friends around an obstacle course using the chairs. We encourage you to think of those in your school or community who might enjoy being a part of this event – a leadership conference like no other.
